

I am strongly opposed to any attempt to weaken Indiana's telephone privacy laws. I do not want anyone, including my own bank or other people I do business with, to make unsolicited calls to me to generate business. Please do not allow these laws to be weakened.